Description

Located in one of the most sought-after residential neighborhoods in northern Bucharest, this three-level house offers a comfortable lifestyle with quick access to international schools, shopping areas, and business districts. The area is ideal for families, offering excellent connectivity and a peaceful atmosphere.

Located In One Of Bucharest's Most Desired Residential Areas

The property has a built footprint of 60 sqm and features a 100 sqm private garden, perfect for outdoor relaxation or family activities. It is a solid concrete construction with PVC windows and marble window sills, ensuring both durability and an elegant finish. A private terrace and a dedicated parking space in front of the house complete the outdoor layout.

The interior spans three floors and offers generous space for day-to-day living, home office, and family life. The home can be delivered either furnished or unfurnished, depending on preference.

The gated residential community includes amenities such as a supermarket, football field, playgrounds, and landscaped green areas. Residents also benefit from 24/7 security and controlled access, ensuring a safe and private environment.

This property is ideal for those looking for a well-connected yet tranquil living space, with all the essential services and conveniences close by.
