Description

This 10-room office building offers a well-structured and versatile workspace designed for a wide range of professional activities. The property features a generous usable surface and an efficient internal layout, allowing clear separation between work areas, meeting rooms, and administrative spaces.

Situated in one of Bucharest's the most sought after areas

Delivered unfurnished, the building provides full flexibility for custom office fit-out, adapting easily to company headquarters, professional offices, training centres or corporate operations. Air conditioning and multiple sanitary facilities ensure comfort and practicality for daily business use.

The location supports smooth business operations, with easy access to key urban services, commercial areas and major infrastructure connections.
